AonMe insurance refers to the insurance policy, which is arranged by Aon New Zealand as the broker with Vero Insurance New Zealand Limited as the insurer.

Welcome to your AonMe Contents Residential Policy – insurance for your contents

In this policy wording, we set out what's covered and what's not covered under your policy, your responsibilities, and how we work together with you at claim time.

Who we mean by 'you'

When we say 'you' or 'your', we mean the insured person or people named on your schedule, and their partner, their parents and/or their children (including dependent children within their care) – if they permanently live at the home with you and aren't covered by any other contents insurance.

A partner is either a:

- marriage or de facto partner under the Property (Relationships) Act 1976
- civil union partner under the Civil Union Act 2004.

Who we mean by 'we'

When we say 'we', 'us', or 'our', we mean Vero Insurance New Zealand Limited.

The documents that make up your insurance policy

Your insurance policy is made up of three parts.

1. This policy wording. It explains what we do and don't cover, the responsibilities you have under the policy, and how to make a claim.
2. Your policy schedule. It gives details specific to you, including who and what is insured, when cover starts and ends, and the premium you've agreed to pay. The policy schedule also includes any special terms that might apply, which might also detail things that we do and don't cover.
3. The information in your proposal, application, or declaration.

Read your policy wording, so you know what we do and don't cover

We agree to give you insurance cover as outlined in this policy wording and your policy schedule, as long as your premium payment is up to date.

Read your insurance policy documents carefully, so you know what you are, and are not, covered for. Keep them together in a safe place.

Once you've read this policy wording, contact your insurance adviser or Aon New Zealand if you would like more information.

Headings in this policy wording are descriptive

The headings used in this policy wording are descriptive — they're to help you find information. They're not part of the terms and conditions, so you can't rely on them to interpret the policy's meaning.

Words in italics have specific meanings

When words are in italics, they have specific meanings that we've defined in the 'Definitions' section on page 29. When we use these words, we mean the definitions we give in the 'Definitions' section.

- loss this policy covers
- loss to the home that happens during the period of insurance, and the contents we're covering are in that home
- loss to the home that happens during the period of insurance that is covered entirely by the Earthquake Commission
- prevention of access to the home by government or local authorities which is initiated during the period of insurance because of possible or impending damage to an otherwise safe or sanitary home.

The temporary accommodation must be of a similar standard to your home.

This cover includes boarding your domestic pets, storing your contents, and moving your contents to and from storage or temporary accommodation.

If you own and live in the home

If you own and live in the home where your contents are insured, we'll pay up to 12 months of temporary accommodation or $50,000, whichever is less.

If there has been a widespread natural disaster, we can choose to pay beyond the 12-month period.

If you are renting the home

What we won't cover under this benefit

Under this benefit, we won't cover:

- any costs you would normally pay if your home was habitable, such as travel, consumables, phone charges, electricity, gas, or water supply services — or any increase in these costs associated with the temporary accommodation
- any costs of alternative premises for your home office or healthcare practice.

Situations where this benefit won't apply

This benefit will never apply if:

- your home is not uninhabitable (other than when authorities stop you from accessing your home as outlined above)
- we haven't agreed in writing that it's necessary for you to move out of your home while it's repaired or rebuilt
- the loss covered by the Earthquake Commission is only loss to land.

+ Any amount we pay under this benefit, we'll pay in addition to your sum insured.

Authorities damage — we'll cover damage caused to prevent other loss

We'll cover physical damage to your contents that government or local authorities cause to prevent loss that this policy covers.

The item limits in this policy still apply (see page 21).

✓ Any amount we pay under this benefit, we'll pay out of your sum insured.

Boarding school — we'll cover your children's contents while they're at boarding school

We'll cover your children's contents if your children are temporarily living away from home at a boarding school.

We'll stop covering the contents at the previous address 30 days after the contents are first removed, unless we've agreed in writing, before any loss, to continue providing cover.

While your contents are being moved between your old and new home, we'll cover them for accidental loss or damage arising from fire or theft from a locked vehicle. We'll also cover your contents if the vehicle being used to move them overturns or is in a collision. The most we'll pay for contents lost or damaged in transit is $10,000 for each event. However, we'll cover your contents if we know the home is a holiday home, or we agreed in writing to cover you while your home was unoccupied.

All of the following must be met.

- Your home, its lawns, and its gardens are kept tidy.
- All external doors and windows are kept locked.
- All papers and mail are collected regularly.
- Your home is under regular supervision.

If you normally live in your home, but your travel or medical commitments mean it's unoccupied for more than 60 days, we'll keep covering your contents for an additional 30 days. You must still meet the conditions above.

Unsecured outboard motors

We won't cover loss to or arising from theft of outboard motors, if the motors aren't:

- securely locked to a boat
- stored in a securely locked part of a boat
- placed in a securely locked building.

Vibration

We won't cover loss caused by vibration, weakening, or removal of support.

War

We won't cover loss, damage, or liability in any way connected with:

- war
- invasion
- acts of foreign enemies
- hostilities or warlike operations (whether war is declared or not)
- civil war
- civil commotion assuming proportions of or amounting to an uprising
- military uprising
- popular uprising
- mutiny
- rebellion
- revolution
- insurrection
- military or usurped power.

Wear and tear

We won't cover loss caused by wear and tear.

However, if there's resulting loss to other items of contents caused by the excluded loss, we'll cover it (unless it's excluded under another part of this policy).

Making a claim

If something happens and you think you may need to make a claim, first make sure everyone is safe.

Then, contact your insurance adviser or us as soon as possible.

Once we have all the information we need, we'll decide the best way to advance your claim.

What you must do if something happens that might lead to a claim

If anything happens that might lead to a claim under this policy, you must do all the following.

- Tell the Police if there's been theft, burglary, or vandalism.
- Tell your insurance adviser or us about what's happened.
- Take all reasonable steps to minimise the loss.
- Send us any communications you get about an event that might lead to a claim.
- Obtain our permission before you start repairs.
- Let us inspect any damaged contents. If you need to immediately remove or destroy contents because of health and safety, take photos of the damage and send them to us.
- Provide us any information or help we may need, including proof that you own the property you're claiming for and evidence of its value. Proof could be receipts, bank or credit card statements, valuations, photos, or contracts of sale.
- Help us take any recovery action we choose against anyone we consider responsible for the loss.
- At your cost, cooperate with our assessors, investigators, lawyers, and anyone else we appoint to help us. This includes attending meetings with them when we need you to.

If you don't fulfil these responsibilities

If you don't fulfil the responsibilities outlined above, we may:

- reduce the amount we pay you
- refuse to pay, or decline, your claim
- require you to pay back to us anything we've paid for the claim.

What you must do to help us settle your claim

Obtain our permission before you incur expenses or negotiate claims

You must obtain our written permission before you incur any expense or negotiate, pay, settle, admit, reject, or make any agreement about any claim.

We will act in your name

In your name, we can:

- take any proceedings necessary to use your legal right of recovery from anyone else
- take over, defend, and settle any claim against you for damages.

If we act in your name, we'll do so at our expense. You must provide all reasonable help and cooperation, at your cost.

When we accept your claim, your damaged contents become our property

When we accept your claim, any damaged items of contents become our property to dispose of or salvage.

We will share and collect information about your claim

You allow us to share information with third parties about any claim you make under this policy. You also allow us to get information from third parties that's relevant to any claim you make under this policy.

You must complete documents agreeing settlement

Before we settle your claim, you must complete documents describing our settlement for your claim.

Excess – you will have to pay an excess

The excess is the amount you must pay towards the cost of any claim.

The excess forms the first part of any loss you're claiming for.

We'll take the excess away from the amount of your claim, not from any policy limit.

If loss arises from multiple incidents, occasions, or events, the excess (or each relevant excess) applies to each incident, occasion, or event that causes loss.

One event, one excess

Usually, you'll pay an excess for every claim. However, if you need to claim under more than one policy with us for loss caused by a single event at the same location, you'll only pay one excess. This will be the largest applicable excess of all your policies.

Different types of excess can apply

More than one type of excess could apply – the specific circumstances of your claim will determine the total value of the excess you need to pay. If more than one type of excess applies, they'll apply cumulatively – they'll be added together to reach the total excess. Any amount shown on your schedule or described in this policy wording as an excess could apply.

The following additional excesses apply, unless the loss arises from fire, flood, or natural disaster.

- $250 for each event, if you let your home to tenants other than you.
- $1,000 for each event, if you make your home available to anyone for casual use in return for any form of payment.

An additional $150 excess applies to any claim for portable electronic equipment that's lost or stolen from your motor vehicle.

An additional $250 excess applies to any claim for loss to contents if they are stolen during a burglary at your home and all the following apply.

- You've told us you have a security alarm system, which we have given you a discount for.
- The alarm was not turned on and/or not activated.
- You weren't at home at the time of the loss.

How we'll settle your claim

If your contents suffer a loss which we accept under this policy, we may choose to settle your claim in one of the following ways. The most we'll pay for loss to your contents is the sum insured shown on your schedule.

We'll decide how to advance your claim

We'll decide the best way to advance your claim, including inspecting any damage, choosing the repairer or supplier, and arranging the repair or replacement of the contents.

If we choose to repair your contents, we'll get independent quotes from our approved repairers or suppliers. You can recommend repairers or suppliers to provide quotes for us to consider. We'll choose who will repair your contents, oversee any repairs, and keep you up to date with what's happening.

We'll pay replacement value for most items

We'll pay the replacement value for most contents. However, we'll pay indemnity value for the items listed below.

We'll pay indemnity value for the following items

We'll pay indemnity value for:

- clothing and footwear
- video tapes, audio tapes, records, and discs
- books and magazines
- sports equipment more than 2 years old
- camping, fishing, and diving equipment more than 2 years old
- bicycles (including e-bikes) more than 3 years old
- drones more than 3 years old
- laptops, tablets, mobile or smart phones, or any other similar handheld electronic devices that are more than 3 years old and can do any of the following.
 - Communicate with other people or devices
 - Receive, run, or display and store executable data programmes, or applications
- contents at a home you own, if you rent your home to anyone who is not entitled to cover under this policy.

The most we'll pay for some items

This table shows the most we'll pay for the listed items, unless they are specified on your schedule for another amount as per cover under the 'Specified items' benefit (page 10).

The limits include the item and its accessories.

Item	Limit on what we'll pay
Each unspecified item, pair, or set of jewellery or watches	$3,000 For any one event, we'll pay up to a maximum of 15% of the sum insured on your schedule (excluding specified items of jewellery and watches) or $15,000 – whichever is greater
Each item of photographic, digital, and video camera equipment We count a camera body and a standard lens as one item, unless separately specified on the schedule . Any extra lens not permanently attached to a camera body, or one that's designed to be interchangeable, we count as its own item.	$3,000
Any bicycle (including any e-bike)	$3,000
Any drone	$3,000
Any canoe, kayak, surfboard, surf ski, kite surfer, paddle board, or windsurfer	$3,000

Unset precious stones or minerals, gold or silver bullion or ingots, and precious metals	$1,000 in total

This table shows the most we'll pay for the listed items. We will never increase the limits for these items.

The limits include the item and its accessories.

Item	Limit on what we'll pay
Any boat (other than canoes, kayaks, surfboards, surf skis, kite surfers, paddle boards, or windsurfers)	$3,000 Under this policy we won't cover any boat that has a market value of more than $3,000
Motor and marine parts and accessories, including children's car seats, while they're out of any vehicle or boat	$2,000 in total
All money, negotiable securities, certificates, documents, and travel tickets	$1,000 in total

We settle some claims in specific ways

If you don't want to repair or replace an item

If you don't want to repair or replace an item, we'll pay the lesser of the indemnity value or the cost of repairs.

This doesn't apply to unspecified jewellery and watches (see below).

If you don't repair or replace unspecified watches or jewellery

If you don't want to repair or replace an unspecified item of jewellery or watch, we'll pay the lesser of the market value or 50% of the replacement value.

The item limits for jewellery or watches will still apply (see page 21).

We'll only replace floor coverings, drapes, curtains, and blinds in the room where the loss happens

We'll only pay to replace damaged floor coverings, drapes, curtains, and blinds in the room where the loss happened.

We'll only pay for consumables you had when the loss happened

If any consumables suffer loss, we'll only pay for the proportion you had when the loss happened.

If damaged items are part of a group, we'll only pay for those damaged items

If items that suffer loss are part of a group of similar items, we'll only pay for those items that actually suffered loss. We'll pay up to the value of or cost to replace those items. This condition doesn't apply to jewellery.

We don't have to exactly replace, repair, reinstate or rebuild items.

Repairs to furniture

We'll only repair or pay for items that actually suffer loss. If the items that suffer loss are part of a group of similar items, we'll pay up to the value of or cost to replace those items only.

Obtain pre-loss valuations for any specified jewellery

If you have any specified items of jewellery on your schedule, you must support any claim for burglary, theft, or unexplained loss with a pre-loss valuation for each item you're claiming for.

If you don't have a pre-loss valuation for the specified item being claimed for, it can affect the claim settlement for that item.

Any pre-loss valuation must be from a suitably qualified jewellery valuer who is a member of a New Zealand jewellery valuers or appraisers society.

Keep higher valued specified jewellery and watches in a locked safe when not in use

You must keep the following items in a locked safe in certain circumstances:

- any individual specified item of jewellery or watch worth over $50,000
- all specified items of jewellery or watches, if their total value is over $100,000.

You must keep these specified items in a locked safe when you're either:

- not wearing or carrying the items
- absent from the building you leave the items in.

The safe must be all of the following.

- Manufactured by a reputable safe manufacturer.
- Of a standard sufficient to protect the specified items from burglary.
- Securely anchored to the floor or wall, following the manufacturer's installation instructions.

If you don't follow these requirements, we won't cover the items for burglary, theft, or unexplained loss.

Costs we'll pay that are associated with your claim

Removal of debris

We'll pay reasonable costs incurred to remove the contents debris from your home. We must agree to any costs in advance.

- + Any amount we pay under this section, we'll pay in addition to your sum insured.

The maximum we'll pay for your claim

The maximum amount we'll pay is the following list, added together.

- The sum insured shown on your schedule (including benefits paid from within your sum insured).

- Any amounts we are required to pay under these benefits:
 - Alternative accommodation (page 6)
 - Fatal injury (page 7)
 - Occupier's and personal liabilities (page 9).
- Any amount we pay for Removal of debris as outlined under the heading 'Costs we'll pay that are associated with your claim' above.

What your responsibilities are

This section outlines the responsibilities you, and anyone else insured under this policy, must meet.

Information given to us must be correct

Your proposal, application, or declaration form is the basis of this contract.

All statements and information you give us, or anyone gives us on your behalf, must be complete and correct. This includes statements and information:

- in any proposal, application, or declaration – whether we get the statements and information verbally, electronically, or in printed form
- that support this policy or any claim.

If you give incorrect or false information in relation to your claim, or if your claim is fraudulent in any way, we won't pay the claim. If your claim is fraudulent, your policy automatically ends – we will cancel your policy from the date you made the claim or gave us the false information.

If you give us incorrect or incomplete information, or if information is withheld, and your claim is declined or we avoid your policy, this may affect your ability to obtain insurance in the future.

You have a duty of disclosure

You have a duty of disclosure, which means you must tell us everything we'd consider material to decide:

- whether to issue, renew, or change this policy
- the terms on which we'd issue, renew, or change this policy, including the premium we charge.

Your duty of disclosure applies each time you renew or change this policy. If you don't meet your duty of disclosure, we can refuse a claim, reduce any claim payment, or avoid the policy. This may affect your ability to obtain insurance in the future.

Tell us if anything changes

Tell us straight away if there's a change that could affect your cover, our decision to insure you, or the premium we charge. Some examples of when you might need to do this are:

- you're going to leave your home unoccupied
- you or someone living with you is convicted of a criminal offence.

If you're not sure whether something is important, tell us anyway. If you don't keep us up to date, we can refuse a claim, or reduce any claim payment, or avoid the policy.

! If we avoid your policy

If we avoid your policy, we treat it as though it never existed. You'll have to pay back any claim payments we have made to you, and we'll refund you any premium you have paid to us.

This might mean you find it difficult to get other insurance in the future.

You're responsible for setting your sum insured

You're responsible for setting your sum insured. You must ensure at all times it is sufficient to cover loss or damage to your contents.

You must take all reasonable steps to prevent loss

You must, at your cost or expense, take all reasonable steps to prevent loss and keep any contents covered by this policy in good condition. We always have the right to examine property this policy covers.

You must also try to avoid any loss that you could be held legally liable for.

We won't cover loss or legal liability in the event that you are reckless or grossly negligent.

Reckless or grossly negligent means you've failed to act in the way a reasonable person would, given the circumstances you faced when the loss happened.

If you're paid reparation, you may need to pay it to us

If anyone covered by this policy is paid reparation for loss or damage to property that we are paying (or have paid) a claim for, you must tell us. You must give us the reparation payments to repay the claim payments that we have made, up to the amount of the reparation received.

You can't pass on your rights or interests under this policy

Without our prior written agreement, you can't assign, or attempt to assign, either of the following to any other party.

- This policy or your interest in it.
- Your rights to any claims proceeds under this policy.

Policy conditions and other important information

Your premium

Your premium is the payment you make in exchange for your insurance cover. Your premium is detailed on your policy schedule. You will pay your premium monthly or annually, depending on the policy you have chosen.

Your premium must be paid up to date before we'll pay a claim

If you need to make a claim and you have premium that is less than 60 days overdue, we may withhold the claim payment until you've paid the overdue premium.

Your policy ends if your premium is more than 60 days overdue

To ensure that you have an opportunity to maintain cover in the event that a monthly premium payment has not been made to us, we will attempt again to collect the outstanding premium from your nominated bank account the month following.

If your premium is overdue by more than 60 days (two consecutive months), your insurance cover under this policy ends and a notification of policy cancellation will be issued.

Your cover reduces after a claim, until your claim is settled

If we pay a claim for loss under this policy, your policy continues. However, the amount of money available to pay future claims out of the sum insured reduces by the value of the loss.

We'll restore the amount of cover in line with either:

- the replacement or repair of the contents
- the payment we make to you for the loss.

Before we restore the amount of your cover, both of the following things must happen.

- You must pay any extra premium that we may charge.
- We must be satisfied that the sum insured shown on your schedule is a reasonable estimate of the replacement value or indemnity value of your contents.

We'll only restore your cover once during the period of insurance, unless we agree otherwise in writing. If your claim is for the total loss of your contents, or if we pay the total sum insured, this condition won't apply, and your policy will end.

How your policy can be cancelled

You can cancel your policy

You have a cooling-off period if you change your mind.

When you first purchase this policy, you can cancel it within 30 days if you change your mind. We'll refund all the premium you've paid if you haven't made a claim.

You can cancel after the cooling-off period

You can cancel your policy at any time after the 30-day cooling-off period. If you haven't made a claim, we'll refund any premium you've already paid for insurance cover after the cancellation date.

We can cancel your policy

We can write to you to cancel your policy

We can cancel this policy at any time by writing to either:

- you at the address or email address on our records
- your insurance adviser.

Your policy will be cancelled from 4.00pm on the 14th day after we send the letter. We will refund any premium you've already paid us for cover after the effective date of the cancellation.

We'll cancel your policy if you make a fraudulent or false claim

If you make a fraudulent or false claim, this policy automatically ends. We don't need to cancel it in writing, but we may confirm to you in writing that it was automatically cancelled at a particular time. We refund any premium you have already paid for cover after the cancellation date.

We may offer to renew your policy

The way we renew your policy depends on whether it is monthly or annual.

If you have an annual policy

Before your annual policy expires, we may invite you to renew it. Before renewing, it is very important that you check all information on the renewal invitation to confirm that your insurance details are still correct and continue to meet your requirements.

If you have a monthly policy

Monthly policies do not have an annual renewal date. They expire every month on the same day that you took out your policy. It is very important that you review your cover regularly to make sure that it still meets your requirements.

To maintain cover, you need to make sure that you continue to make monthly premium payments.

We may automatically adjust your sum insured at renewal

When we renew your policy, we consider factors that can influence the cost of repairing or replacing items of contents.

As a result, we may adjust the sum insured for your contents. If we do, we'll show your new sum insured on your schedule, and adjust your premium accordingly.

We don't guarantee, represent or advise that any change to your sum insured will be enough to compensate you fully for any loss or damage. You must always ensure your sum insured is enough to cover loss or damage to your contents, and associated costs.

We don't cover you if you breach these terms

To be covered under your policy, you must comply with the terms and conditions outlined in this policy wording.

If we find that anyone insured by your policy has breached any of these terms or conditions, we can refuse a claim, or reduce the payment.

However, nothing in this policy wording affects our rights or yours under common law, including our right to avoid your policy for not making full disclosure in accordance with your duty of disclosure.

This policy can cover multiple parties as joint insureds

This policy is a joint policy if your schedule shows joint names, or includes the name of a Trust, as being insured.

We view each insured person as acting with the explicit permission of any other. You each have the right to change this policy, make or settle a claim under this policy, or cancel this policy.

Any breach of the policy terms or conditions by one person will prevent all insured people from claiming under this policy.

We may change terms of this policy

If we can no longer obtain or retain full reinsurance protection from any natural disaster this policy covers, we may change the terms of this policy, including the excess.

We'll send a letter or email to the latest address we have for you, or to your insurance adviser. The change takes effect at 4pm on the 14th day after we send the letter.

How GST applies when we pay a claim

Dollar figures for benefits, excesses, and limits to items (including specified items) in this policy include GST. However, we'll pay GST that is paid or payable on top of the sum insured.

We only pay once if more than one benefit could apply

Some benefits under this policy can only be used once per event, even if you have more than one policy or section of a policy with us that has the same benefit.

This condition applies if you, or someone you live with, has any of the following benefits with us under more than one policy:

- Alternative accommodation
- Occupier's and personal liabilities
- Stolen keys
- Tenants' improvements

We don't cover you if you have other insurance

We won't cover you for loss or liability where insurance cover is provided by another insurer for the same loss or liability, except where the 'Fatal injury' benefit applies. We won't contribute towards any claim under any other policy.

If your contents are secured by an interested party

If any item of your contents is under a hire purchase contract, or secured by another kind of financial agreement, we may make any claim payment to the interested party. This will meet our responsibilities under this policy.

Where required, we'll share personal information about you with any party that holds a financial interest in your contents.

We don't cover parties with a financial interest under this policy, and those parties can't make claims.

New Zealand law applies to this policy

This policy is governed by New Zealand law and New Zealand courts have exclusive jurisdiction over any legal proceedings about this policy.

When this policy mentions an Act of New Zealand Parliament, this includes any substitution, amendment, or replacement of the Act. If the Act has been repealed and there is no substitution or replacement, we mean any part of an Act with substantially the same purpose and function. It includes the regulations under the Act.

We'll put details of your claims on the Insurance Claims Register

In buying this policy, you allow us to put details of any claims you make on the Insurance Claims Register (ICR) so other insurers can see them. You also allow us to obtain personal information and details of claims you've made from the ICR.

The ICR is a database of insurance claims. It helps prevent insurance fraud by enabling insurance companies to share details of claims. The ICR is operated by Insurance Claims Register Limited (ICR Ltd), PO Box 474, Wellington 6140.
