Health & Medical Professionals

2026 - 2027 COVER

Aon's Health and Medical Professionals scheme specialises in cover for various types of individual health professionals. Malpractice Liability is the base cover with the option of adding Public and Statutory Liability.

Malpractice Liability covers practitioners for their legal liability if they breach their professional duty through negligence.

Members can join the scheme at any time and will have a 12-month period of cover from inception.

The insurance is underwritten by Vero Liability Insurance Limited. Under the Insurance (Prudential Supervision) Act 2010, Vero Liability Insurance Limited carries a financial strength rating of AA- (Very strong) issued by Standard and Poor's.

Important information change from 1 May 2026

Multiple Modalities

If you are insured for two modalities, the premium for the highest modality category will apply.

If you have three to five (3–5) modalities, an additional $150 + GST will apply from 1 May 2026.

If you have more than five (5+) modalities from 1 May 2026, your cover will require referral to the insurer for consideration.

Administration Fees

Aon's administration fee for all categories is $150 + GST.

Aon's administration fee for Category A5 is increased to $70 + GST.

All premiums are inclusive of the administration fee and GST.

Animals Treatment

The insurer had advised that effective from 1 May 2026, if more than 50% of your work involves the treatment of animals, you will no longer be eligible for cover under the Health Professional scheme

If this may apply to your practice, please contact us for further information and to discuss alternative insurance options.

WHERE ARE YOU COVERED

You are covered for work performed in New Zealand.

You may have clients living temporary outside of New Zealand, provided your services are from within New Zealand, then you are covered. If anyone takes action against you, it must be under the jurisdiction of New Zealand for cover to apply

The Cover

The cover is for individual practitioners only. This includes if you are a Sole Trader or an Incorporated Entity. However, you can include up to two administrative employees under your policy. Each practitioner must hold their own cover. Malpractice is the base cover, while optional Public and Statutory Liability incur an additional premium.

Cover is in connection with the business activities declared and the category selected on your proposal, and then confirmed in your Policy Schedule.

Please tick all activities (modalities) you perform on the proposal form. If there are any other activities you perform which are not listed, please advise these to us on the proposal or in your email. If you do not declare these to us you will have no cover for them. Your proposal will be reviewed by our underwriter and there may be an additional charge.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Professional Indemnity (Malpractice) and Statutory Liability policies are 'claims made' policies. This means that it is the policy in place at the time you become aware of a claim or circumstances that will respond. Not the policy in place at the time the actual event occurred.

This is subject to a retroactive date which will show on your schedule. The retroactive date is the date you had cover incepted for the first time. The policy will only respond to claims arising out of business activities performed after that date. Your retroactive date will remain the same provided you have had continuous cover in place year after year. If there is a break in continuity your retroactive date will be from the date the new cover started.

GOT QUESTIONS

Q: Can I cancel my cover during the year?

A: Bear in mind that if you cancel your cover you will have no policy to respond should a claim arise in future for advice and services provided previously. We recommend leaving cover in place until expiry

Q: What if I perform more than one modality and am a Sports Nutritionist (A1) and a Personal Trainer (A3)?

A: Please refer to "Important information change from 1 May 2026"

Q: I contract two other professionals that work for me, can I include cover for them on my policy?

A: You can only include up to two administrative employees but not anyone who provides professional advice or service. Each professional will need to take out their own policy.

Q: Can I have a lower excess than the $1,000 on this policy?

A: The Health Professionals Scheme has a $1,000 excess which cannot be changed.

If you wanted cover with a lower excess we would need to obtain an open-market quote for you outside of the scheme and the premium would be much higher.
